 You will hear a radio interview with a man called Richard Sandland, who is the head teacher of a secondary school. For questions 1-6, choose the best answer (A, B or C).

- 1 Why did Richard decide to create the wildlife area?
A The students wanted to help local wildlife.
B The area looked unattractive.
C Some wildlife had already moved into the area.
- 2 What does Richard say about the long grass?
A It will be replaced by a wild flower area.
B It's great for attracting insects.
C It will be left to grow around the pond.
- 3 What do Richard's students think about working on the project after school and at weekends?
A They don't mind giving up their spare time for the project.
B Many have been put off from getting involved.
C They won't be able to help much because of their other hobbies.
- 4 Why did Richard need to involve an expert from the local wildlife society?
A He wanted to be sure his plans would work.
B He needed expert advice on what to do.
C He wanted to encourage the students to join in.
- 5 What does Richard say about the modern education system?
A It's not as good as it was when he was young.
B It misses out an important part of education.
C It doesn't offer enough choice of subjects.
- 6 What will students be doing frequently as the project progresses?
A taking photographs of the wildlife area
B giving reports to the radio station
C writing about the project online
