

1. Read each sentence and connect it to the meaning of the phrasal verb on the right.

A. You waste energy and money if you do not turn off the lights of empty rooms.	1. to cease doing or attempting something especially as an admission of defeat
B. Try to go through your receipt after you go shopping to check they have charged you the right amount.	2. to take hold of and lift up or to take (passengers or freight) into a vehicle
C. It's best not to use up all your cellphones battery in one day.	3. to review something or to analyze something with a careful eye.
D. A well balanced life should include a time to work out to strengthen your body.	4. a practice or exercise to test or improve one's fitness for athletic competition, ability, or performance
E. One should not give up in the first try. You can always try anything again.	5. to exhaust of strength or useful properties
F. Now there are services to pick food up for you from restaurants.	6. to stop the flow of or shut off by or as if by turning a control