Read about Fiona's favourite city.

My favourite city

I really like my mother's hometown. It's Canberra, the capital of Australia.

I went there at the end of January. My grandparents took me to the bookshop to buy a new book. Then we visited the National Gallery.

When I was there, my cousin Samantha turned 12. We had a picnic near Lake Burley Griffin for her birthday. We jumped in the lake and swam a lot because it was very hot. We had a lot of fun in the park. Then I went to the cinema with my cousins.

Canberra is a beautiful city with a big lake and it has bridges to go from one side of the city to the other.

I want to go back again next summer!
