

Development and Growth in Animals

Choose the correct answer.

1. Which stage is NOT a part of incomplete metamorphosis?
A egg
B larva
C nymph
D adult
2. The stage at which a young insect is enclosed in a protective covering is
A egg
B larva
C pupa
D adult
3. What stage of life does a frog spend partly on land?
A egg
B tadpole
C as legs develop
D adult
4. Which type of animal provides parental care for their young?
A birds
B reptiles
C fishes
D amphibians
5. _____ The organ through which materials pass between the mother and an embryo is called the placenta.
6. _____ The larva stage of a frog is called a(n) pupa.
7. _____ Complete metamorphosis does not include a larva stage.
8. _____ Mammals provide parental care to their young until they are independent.
9. _____ Most crustaceans begin life as tiny swimming nymphs.
10. _____ Amniotic eggs are eggs kept inside a parent's body.