

GRAMMAR

- 1 Look at the pictures of Ann from yesterday and complete the sentences from her blog. Use was, wasn't, were or weren't.

Yesterday

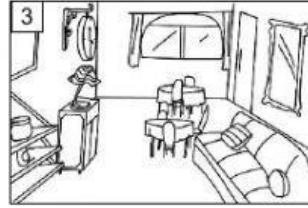

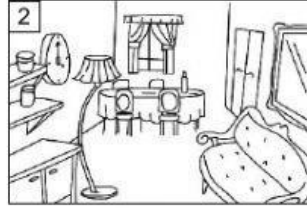

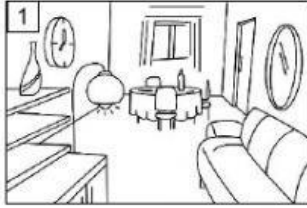

1. I at the supermarket yesterday.
2. I happy about the eggs at the supermarket.
3. The bakery open.
4. My sister at the bakery with me.
5. Carl and I bored at the cinema.
6. We excited by the film.
7. It a hot night.
8. Other people on the street.

- 2 Complete the questions with Was or Were.

1. you at the airport last Saturday?
2. you and your family at a restaurant yesterday?
3. it cold last night?
4. your friends at school last week?
5. your birthday in January?

3 Read the description of a restaurant. Then choose the correct picture.

- a. There's a sofa next to the door.
- b. There's a mirror over the sofa.
- c. There's a clock opposite the mirror.
- d. The clock is between some shelves and a lamp.
- e. There's a cupboard under the lamp.

Answer: It's restaurant number

4 Complete the sentences about Ancient Egypt. Use the affirmative or negative form of There was or There were.

- 1. towns in Ancient Egypt. They were usually near the River Nile.
- 2. meat from many animals, but any chickens in Ancient Egypt.
- 3. any sweet shops and any chocolate.
- 4. any banks for money, but a special "bank" for food.