

Practice (Remember writing only DEL when it is DE + EL)

The book is next to the table

The notebook is under the desk

The computer is between the table and the notebook

The pen is on the notebook

The computer is far from the books

The notebook is behind the computer

What about the verb in singular or plural?

The books are next to the table

The notebooks are under the desk

The computers are between the table and the notebook

The pens are on the notebook

The books are far from the computer

The notebooks are behind the computer 