

Quiz: The Golden Slipper

Recall the story "The Golden Slipper" and complete the following activities.

Match the questions to the answers.

- | | |
|--|--|
| 1) Why did the little red fish help Maha? | a) Maha watched the dancing and ate dates and baklava. |
| 2) Why was Hutun mean to Maha? | b) The prince's horse found Maha's golden slipper. |
| 3) What did Maha do at the party? | c) The little red fish helped Maha because she has a kind heart. |
| 4) Why was Maha sad? | d) Maha was sad because Hutun was mean to her. |
| 5) Who found Maha's golden slipper in the river? | e) Hutun was mean to Maha because she was jealous. |

Circle the correct answer.

Who are the characters of the story?

- A. Maha, the prince, the little turtle, the queen and Hutun
- B. Maha, the prince, the little red fish, the queen and Hutun
- C. Maha, the princess, the little red fish, the queen and Hutun

Where does the story take place?

- A. A long time ago in Irak.
- B. A long time ago in India.
- C. Ten years ago in Irak.

What is the problem of the story?

- A. Maha is sad because she can't go to the merchant's daughter's henna party.
- B. Hutun and her daughter are very mean to Maha because they were jealous of her beauty.
- C. Maha's mother dies so her father marries a new woman.

What is the solution?

- A) Maha runs away from her home.
- B) Maha asks the queen to be kind to her.
- C) The little red fish helps Maha because she has a kind heart.

What happens in the end?

- A. Maha marries the prince and lives happily ever after.
- B. Maha marries the prince but is not happy.
- C. Hutun doesn't let Maha marry the prince.

ONLINE CLASSROOM

