

AUXILIARY VERBS IN QUESTIONS

Write the correct auxiliary in each gap:

For present simple tense, we use the auxiliary verb: for I, you, we, they and for she, he, it.
The main verb goes in infinitive form.

For present continuous tense, we use the auxiliary verb: am for I; you, we, they and for she, he, it.
The main verb is in – ing form.

For past simple tense, we use the same auxiliary verb: for all subjects. The main verb goes in infinitive form.
Remember BE in past: was or

For present perfect tense, we use the auxiliary verb: for I, you, we and they and for she, he, it.
The main verb is past participle form.

For future plans and intentions, we use the auxiliary verb: am for I; you, we, they and for she, he, it.
The auxiliary verb is followed by "going to" plus an infinitive verb.

LET'S DO SOME EXERCISES NOW !

AUXILIARY VERBS IN QUESTIONS

Fill in the gaps with the right auxiliary:

1. Hi, how ____ you?
2. Where ____ your father work?
3. Why ____ she crying now?
4. What ____ you wear last night?
5. Where ____ you been all day?
6. What time ____ she get up on Sundays?
7. How much ____ the concert tickets last year?
8. What ____ you do after class yesterday?
9. ____ you clean your bedroom at the weekends?
10. When ____ your brother going to leave?
11. What ____ you talking about?
12. Where ____ they go last night?
13. What adventures ____ she had so far?
14. ____ you see something strange when you arrived?
15. Where ____ they going to spend next Christmas?
16. ____ your brother a good student?
17. ____ she working at home today?
18. Who ____ your best friend when you were a kid?
19. ____ you going to study English next month?
20. How many books ____ he written until now?