

A Visit to King Arthur's Labyrinth

The tourist attraction that brings the legend to life!

Travel into the past to the times of King Arthur at one of the most unusual tourist attractions in Wales.

But who was King Arthur?

He was a legendary king from medieval times. He was a hero who won many battles and even fought dragons!

King Arthur's Labyrinth isn't a museum: it's an underground adventure! First, you descend underground into a large cave. Then, you can explore the cave with a guide, who tells you the story of King Arthur and his exciting life.

The experience is interactive. You don't just hear about the tale of King Arthur – you can see and hear his adventures too! And you might also see a Welsh dragon ... but don't be scared!

Don't forget to wear comfortable shoes for walking. This attraction is suitable for all the family. It's lots of fun for children, teenagers and adults.
