

CONSTRUCTING SENTENCES – Simple, Compound and Complex

Using the simple sentences, construct a compound sentence (using the conjunction given in the bracket) and a complex sentence.

SIMPLE	COMPOUND (f.a.n.d.b.o.y.s)	COMPLEX
Tomorrow is a holiday	(so)
Samy liked Lalitha	(but)
He behaves like a baby	(yet)
The boy did not like broccoli	(nor)
She did not want to buy the pink blouse	(for)
The chicken curry is delicious	(but)
I could not understand the tourists	(yet)
He is thinking of travelling to India	(or)
They practised very hard	(and)
The athlete was thirsty	(for)	