

Crowlie. The thunderstorm. Game “Houses”

Fill in the gaps with missing words. Check the text!

“In the wood...” – the little bear repeated _____.

Suddenly Clumsy _____ his friend Gracie who lived on the farm.

Gracie did not know about the Great Changes, _____ were coming.

She lived on the farm and she _____ not hear about them.

She was a boastful careless goat and she _____ his helping hand.

So he _____ Mr Crowlie and rushed to the farm.

Not long ago Gracie _____ run from the farm and had been lost in the wood.

The animals in the wood _____ that she was scary because of her white fur, sharp horns and loud screaming voice.

They had never _____ such a strange monster.

Only Clumsy had not _____ afraid of her.

She turned _____ to be a harmless farm animal.

After that she had got ... in the bog and Clumsy and his friends rescued her.

The little bear was _____ about Gracie so he ran as fast as he could to the farm.

Meanwhile the wood _____ darker and darker.

Gloomy clouds looked like monsters _____ around the sun.

They tried to catch _____ other.

At last the sun _____ up and hid behind the biggest storm cloud.

Clumsy _____ not see where to run.

The black dry branches _____ him.

The strong wind _____ the trees and lots of leaves were flying around the little bear.

It was dark _____ at night.

Suddenly, a flash of lightning _____ up the path and an old oak near Clumsy and a few seconds later a loud cracking thunderclap deafened him.

He _____ his eyes and ears.

He could not run _____.

It _____ to rain.

Large water drops _____ him on his nose, head, and paws.

Clumsy _____ between the roots of the old oak.

He _____ alone and too scared to run away...