

Activity 2

5th grade

too and enough

too much / too many					enough
I	eat	too	much	junk food.	I	don't	eat	enough	vegetables.
I	work	too	many	hours.	I		get	enough	exercise.

Use too much, too many, and enough before nouns to talk about amounts.

1 Read. Circle the letter.

- I drink ten cans of soda every day. That's ____!
a. enough b. too many
- I watch ____ TV.
a. too b. too much
- She always stays up ____ late.
a. enough b. too
- He plays basketball every day. He ____ exercise.
a. gets enough b. doesn't get enough
- They sleep for only five hours every night. They ____ sleep.
a. get enough b. don't get enough

2 Read and write. Use enough or too.

- He only eats one apple a week. He doesn't eat ____ enough ____ fruit.
- It's hot today. Do we have _____ water for everyone?
- This exercise is _____ difficult!
- My mom thinks we watch _____ many soccer games on TV.
- It's important to get _____ exercise.
- Don't stay up _____ late! You have school in the morning.
- Don't eat _____ much junk food. It's bad for you!