

warm up

A Work with a partner and discuss the following questions.

- Where do you usually go on vacation?
- Do you like traveling alone or with your family / friends?
- Think about your last travel experience:
  - Where did you go?
  - What was the most important thing you remember about that trip?

vocabulary compound adjectives

Boost Box

To create compound adjectives, we often use a hyphen (-). This helps us understand that two words are part of the same adjective.

eg.

two-seater car

15-page document

A Match the words below to their synonyms.

- a world-famous
- old-fashioned
- time-saving
- low-priced
- densely-populated

- not popular and new
- not expensive
- crowded
- quick and helpful
- well-known

B Look at the images and fill in the gaps with the adjectives in exercise A.

a woman in an _____ dress

a _____ city: Tokyo

a _____ invention: dishwasher

a _____ hotel room

_____ pyramids in Egypt

C Read the sentences below and correct the compound adjectives in italics.

- Delhi is one of the most crowded and also the most old-fashioned cities in the world.
- Every year, thousands of people around the world come to see the low-priced buildings in the city.
- I'm looking for a world-famous laptop because I don't have much money.
- These densely-populated microwaves cook foods very fast. You should definitely have one.
- I don't want to wear this time-saving dress. I prefer a stylish one for the party.

D Listen and check your answers in exercise C.