

1. Fill in the blanks with the correct form of the verb in brackets.

Our town is an old town. There _____ (be) a square in the town centre. _____ (be) called Market Square because there _____ (be) a market there every morning. Once a year there _____ (be) a jazz festival in Market Square, too. It _____ (be) usually very good.

At the end of the square there _____ (be) a museum. there _____ (be) old photographs of the town in it. They _____ (be) very interesting.

There _____ (be) some restaurants in the square. They _____ (be) great. Opposite the restaurants there _____ (be) a theatre, a bookshop and a pub. The theatre _____ (be) called The Opera House. The bookshop _____ (be) between the theatre and the museum. The pub _____ (be) on the corner of the square. There _____ (be) a car park in Castle Street, next to the pub.

Opposite the square there _____ (be) a big hotel - it _____ (be) called the Castle Hotel. I work at the hotel. There _____ (be) a club in the cellar. It _____ (be) called Ringo's. The hotel _____ (be) in Castle Street. It _____ (be) a pedestrian street with a lot of stores - music stores, clothing stores and shoe stores. There _____ (be) three banks, too.

At the end of Castle Street, there _____ (be) a park. We often go there at the weekend.

2. What about you? Where do you live? What buildings and places are there? Do you like living there? Respond below.