

For want of a nail  the shoe  was lost,

For want of a shoe  the horse  was lost,

For want of a horse  the rider  was lost,

For want of a rider  the battle  was lost,

For want of a battle  the kingdom  was lost,

And all for the want of a horseshoe nail!

Aadarsh - Deep in a forest stood a very tall tree.

Abhay - Its leafy branches spread out like strong arms.

Aditi - This tree was the home of a flock of wild geese.

Aditya - They felt safe there.

Akriti - One of the geese was a wise old bird.

Akriti - He noticed a small creeper at the foot of the tree.

Amit - He spoke to the other birds about it.

Ananya Sarkar - He said to them.

Ananya Shaw – Let us destroy it.

Ananya Srivastava – It is so small.

Ansh Gupta – That little creeper will soon grow.

Ansh Raj – As it creeps up this tree, it will become thick and strong.”

Anushka – With the help of that creeper, it will be possible for someone to climb this tree.

Ayantick - A hunter can come up and kill us.

Ayushraj - Well there's no hurry.

Ayush Rajak - The creeper is very small.

Bhumika - It would be a pity to destroy it now.

Debajyoti - Destroy the creeper while it is still young.

Akriti - He noticed a small creeper at the foot of the tree.

Jiya - The old bird advised.

Joydip - Now it is tender and you can cut it easily.

Koushik – Later it will become hard.

Medha – You will not be able to cut it.

Mritunjay – That little creeper will soon grow.

Naitik – We'll see.

Om – But they did not destroy the creeper.

Preetish - They forgot the wise old bird's advice.

Rakshanda – As the creeper grew, it began winding its way up the tree.

Reshab - Stronger and stronger it became.

Rittika - Until it was as strong as a thick rope.

Rohan - One morning when the geese had gone out in search of food, a hunter came to the forest.

Sachi - So this is where the wild geese live.

Saghirul - He said to himself.

Shilpi - When they come back in the evening, I shall catch them.

Siddharth – The hunter climbed up the tree with the help of the creeper.

Siksha – He got to the top and spread his net there.

Soumya – Then he climbed down and went away.

Soumojit – They did not notice the net.

Spandan – But they did not destroy the creeper.

Sweta - As they flew into the tree, they were trapped.

Tanmay – As the creeper grew, it began winding its way up the tree.

Tannu - They struggled hard to get out, but could not.

Trishit - Help! Help!" cried the geese.

Unnati - "We are caught in the hunter's net.

Everyone - Don't make a fuss now.

Everyone - Long ago I told you to destroy the creeper, but you did not.

Everyone - Now see what has happened.

Everyone – Tomorrow morning the hunter will come back and kill us all.

Everyone – We were foolish," wept the birds.

Everyone – We are very sorry we did not listen to you.

Everyone – Then listen carefully," replied the wise bird.

Everyone – When the hunter comes you must all pretend to be dead.
