

Writing A Story

Study the following pictures and write a composition in about 150 words. You may use the writing plan at the back to help you. You need to begin your story with the following sentence:
'Something strange and unbelievable happened to me last weekend.'

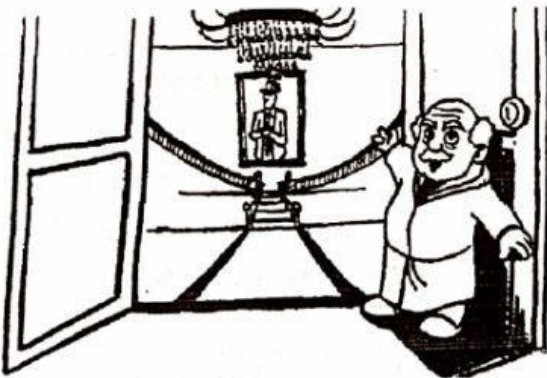

1.

2.

3.

4.

5.

6.

Writing Plan

Picture 1

- Where were you and your friend?
- Why did you go there with your friend?
- What was your friend's name?
- What happened?

Picture 2

- What did you and your friend see?
- Why did you go inside?
- What happened?
- What did you and your friend feel?

Picture 3

- Who was the old man?
- What did you see inside the big house?
- What happened?
- What did you and your friend feel?

Picture 4

- Was there anyone inside the house?
- What happened then?
- What did you ask the old man?
- What did you and your friend feel?

Picture 5

- What did you and your friend do then?
- Did you hear any strange noise?
- Did anything 'strange' or 'unbelievable' happen?

Picture 6

- What happened then?
- What did you see/find?
- What did you and your friend do at the end?
- What did you and your friend feel?