Donald Trump is the 45th president of the United States. Many people were surprised when he was elected. He had no political or military experience, and at the age of 70, he was the oldest person to become president. Trump's previous jobs were a businessman and a TV star. After graduating with a degree in economics, he worked in the family company building hotels and casinos. With around $3.5 billion in the bank, he is also the richest president in American history.

President Trump is a member of the Republican Party. His goals as president are to reduce tax, increase energy production, and to control immigration. In his campaign he used the slogan, "Make America Great Again." He promised to build a wall between USA and Mexico. Eleven per cent of the American population is Mexican, but Trump wanted to stop more coming. The wall was a controversial idea. Although some people supported it, there were big protests in many cities. The protesters believed that immigration was a benefit to the country.

Donald Trump's wife, Melania, is a model- and an immigrant from Slovenia! The couple have one son named Barron. Trump has four more children from two previous marriages. His daughter, Ivanka, who used to work in fashion, now works as his assistant. After a few month's in power, the public did not have a positive impression of President Trump. In a survey, 54% of Americans said he was doing a bad job. Only 37% thought that Trump was an honest man, and 61% worried that he was not respected by other world leaders. It is not clear what will happen next in his presidency, but one thing is for sure, the media loves Trump, and we will keep seeing his face on our screens.
