

ENGLISH YEAR 6

WRITING

INFORMATION TRANSFER

Study the notes below and use the information to complete the text.
Drag and drop the correct answer.

breathe through blowhole	omnivorous animal
about 30 metres	between 180 to 200 tons
give birth to young

The blue whale is the largest animal on earth. It measures _____ in length and weighs _____. Blue whales are found in oceans especially the Pacific Ocean. The blue whale is not a fish but a mammal. It _____ and feeds them with milk. It is an _____ as it feeds on plankton, krill, squids, and other small fish. The blue whale _____ in the top of its head.

