

Nancy Mulligan

I _____ twenty-four years old

When I _____ the woman I would call my own

Twenty-two grandkids now growing old

In that house that your brother _____ ya

On the summer day when I _____

I _____ that wedding ring from dentist gold

And I _____ her father, but her daddy _____: No

You can't marry my daughter

She and I _____ on the run

Don't care about religion

I'm gonna marry the woman I love

Down by the Wexford border

She _____ Nancy Mulligan

And I _____ William Sheeran

She _____ my name and then we _____ one

Down by the Wexford border

Well, I _____ her at Guy's in the Second World War

And she _____ working on a soldier's ward

Never had I seen such beauty before

The moment that I _____ her
Nancy _____ my yellow rose
And we _____ married wearing borrowed clothes
We _____ eight children, now growing old
Five sons and three daughters

She and I _____ on the run
Don't care about religion
I'm gonna marry the woman I love
Down by the Wexford border

She _____ Nancy Mulligan
And I _____ William Sheeran
She _____ my name and then we _____ one
Down by the Wexford border

From her Snow-White streak in her jet black hair
Over sixty years I've been loving her
Now we're sat by the fire in our old armchairs
You know Nancy, I adore ya

From a farm boy born near Belfast town
I never _____ about the king and crown
'Cause I _____ my heart upon the southern ground
There's no difference, I assure ya
