

IDIOMS WORK AND BUSINESS

TIED UP

IN A NUTSHELL

EMBARKED ON A CAREER

WIN-WIN SITUATION

FIRED

UP TO SB'S EYEBALLS

HANDS-ON EXPERIENCE

HAND IN SB'S NOTICE

GO THE EXTRA MILE

THINK OUTSIDE THE BOX

A FOOT IN THE DOOR

WORK AROUND THE CLOCK

HAVE SB'S DUCKS IN A ROW

BUSINESS AS USUAL

CLIMB THE CAREER LADDER

2) MATCH THE CONCEPT WITH THE DEFINITION

- a) to become really busy with something that you aren't able to stop doing
- b) all day and all night without stopping
- c) think in an original or creative way
- d) to begin (sth that will take a long time or happen for a long time)
- e) become more and more successful or important
- f) a situation by which cooperation leads to all participants benefiting
- g) to organize your tasks and schedule so that you are ready for the next step
- h) something is working or continuing in the normal or usual way
- i) to be very busy, or to have more of something than you can manage
- j) to sum up, in conclusion
- k) to renounce by a formal act
- l) dismiss (an employee) from a job / let sb go
- m) to enter an organization at a low level, but with a chance of being more successful in the future
- n) to do more than one is required to do
- o) skill that sb gets from doing sth rather than just reading about it or seeing it being done