

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1. Kamel _____ to exercise, but he didn't lose much weight. A. clickedB. forgotC. continuedD. improved                                                                                                                                                                       |                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| 2. The operator _____ the computer with a piece of plastic. A. checkedB. coveredC. remindedD. divided                                                                                                                                                                        | 3. Saudi Aramco _____ its employees with bus transportation. A. suppliesB. requestsC. monitorsD. introduces                                                                                                                                                 |
| 4. Mousa finished----- the report last week. A. writingB. writtenC. writesD. wrote                                                                                                                                                                                           | 5. I _____ a cup of coffee every morning. A. are drinkingB. drinkC. drinksD. is drinking                                                                                                                                                                    |
| 6. Do you know the person----- house burned down? A. whomB. whoC. whichD. whose                                                                                                                                                                                              | 7. The supervisor apportioned blame for the accident. He said that three of the workers had failed to make the necessary safety checks and he blamed the three men equally. apportioned means: A. tookB. receivedC. producedD. divided |
| 8- Abdullah is a very meticulous worker. He checks every job he does twice to be sure his work is not bad. However, he is not a very quick worker. He sometimes takes a very long time to do a simple job. meticulous means: A. fastB. complexC. carefulD. old | 9- Some parts of the world receive a lot more precipitation each year than others do. For example, you need an umbrella more often in England than you do in Egypt. precipitation means: E. rainF. heatG. drynessH. cold                      |