

WRITING FOCUSreally* and *a bit

We can use really and a bit before adjectives in informal writing, such as in a blog or an email.

really = very

a bit = a little

I'm really hungry!

Sam is a bit sad.

5 Rewrite the sentences using really.

It was hot on the train.

It was really hot on the train.

- 1 We had a great time.
- 2 I was tired after the journey.
- 3 I think Berlin is an amazing city.
- 4 There was a long queue for the museum.
- 5 It's a big shop.

Match the sentences with the ones using really and the words in brackets.

1. We had a great time
2. I was tired after the journey.
3. I think Berlin is an amazing city.
4. There was a long queue for the museum.
5. It's a big shop.

I was really tired after the journey.
I think Berlin is a really amazing city.
There was a really long queue for the museum.
It's a really big shop.
We had a really great time