

Read the following sentences and fill in the blanks using the correct form of: there is / there are, there isn't / there aren't, Is there / Are there.

Examples: There is a spider in my room.

There are ten fish in the sea.

There isn't a dragon in my classroom.

There aren't any rubbers in my school bag.

Is there a whiteboard in this classroom?

Are there any pencils in your school bag?

1.                                    a book in this schoolbag?                                    .
2.                                    nine boys in this classroom?                                    .
3. Are there six stars in the sky? Yes,                                    .
4.                                    a computer in this classroom?                                    .
5. Are there five birds on that tree? No,                                    .
6. Is there a ball in the garden? Yes,                                    .
7.                                    ten ducks in the river?                                    .
8. Is there a shark in the sea? Yes,                                    .
9.                                    a ruler on your desk?                                    .
10. Are there seven pens in your pencil case? No,                                    .