Faiz Subri Won!

In January 2017, Mohd Faiz Subri, a Malaysian footballer, had created history as he was named the winner of the Puskas Award for the best goal of 2016 in Zurich. This made him the first Asian to ever win the international prize and a hero to everyone in the country.

Mohd Faiz Subri came to the world on 8 November 1987 in Kedah. He is the third of five brothers and sisters. He received his primary education at Sekolah Kebangsaan Tengku Laksamana. He was studying his secondary education at Sekolah Menengah Kebangsaan Permatang Bonglai before moving to S.M. Teknik Arau in Perlis.

He started playing for the Kedah youth squad from 2006 to 2009 and had moved several clubs after that. Now, he plays as an attacking midfielder for Penang FA, a Malaysian Super League club. It is the match against Pahang FA at the City Stadium in George Town on Feb 2016, Faiz scored an incredible free kick that helped the home team defeat Pahang 4-1.

Faiz's fantastic goal last year went famous and received 59.46 per cent online votes at the Best FIFA Football Awards 2016 where he finished way ahead of the other two finalists.

Faiz was very happy to have won the award. He even tweeted some selfies with famous footballers like Cristiano Ronaldo and Manuel Neuer as well as the former Manchester United manager Sir Alex Ferguson.
