Revision: Travel

• aged • antique • ancient • archaic

She enjoyed studying ..... languages such as Sanskrit and Latin.

He helped an ..... woman cross the street.

He preferred ..... methods of farming instead of tractors or machinery.

His collection of ..... furniture was from the 17th century.

• natural • real • genuine • unaffected

The Van Gogh painting he bought was proven to be ..... by experts.

Low income families were ..... by the new tax increases.

The ..... habitats of many animals were destroyed by the fire.

The ..... art of a magician is illusion rather than magic.

• lush • unique • scenic • rich

The ..... soil produced a big harvest of crops.

This ..... garden is a lovely spot for a picnic.

His hotel window had a ..... view of the lake.

Every human has a ..... set of fingerprints.

• strange • rare • odd • unusual

They seem like a(n) ..... pairing but they work well together.

..... as it may seem, I quite like it when it rains.

His collection included some ..... triangular coins.

It was ..... for Mark to be quiet because he is normally so outgoing.

• directed • affected • influenced • controlled

The new tax laws have ..... us all.

Sam ..... the company for years before stepping down.

The media is ..... by the state in some countries.

Charlie Chaplin ..... many of Woody Allen's early films.

• remote • external • foreign • alien

Nowadays many ..... students choose to study abroad.

John moved to a ..... village to escape from the stress of the city.

Indian culture is completely ..... to most European tourists.

The ..... features of the building included a garden and a fountain.

• cash • currency • money • notes

The euro is a common ..... used by over 320 million Europeans.

Bring ..... because they don't accept credit cards.

We exchange ..... and cheques.

He earned just enough ..... to pay his bills and rent.

• ticket • fare • fee • charge

There was a ..... of twenty pence to use the toilet.

The electrician's ..... was £20 per hour.

He paid for his ..... on the train because the ticket office was closed.

The train ..... was £10 one-way and £15 return.

LIVEWORKSHEETS