I_love_football 	Comment 2 Like · Reply · 1 · Feb 24, 2016 5:10 p.m. I feel really bad today. The other players in my football team say that I'm lazy and fat. They say I should run faster. They make me feel I'm a bad player.	b. Reply to comment You should speak to your mum and say you are sorry. You were rude to her. She is just worried about you. You should try to understand her.

You're ruining my life!' She started to cry. Should I say sorry or just forget about it?	c. Reply to comment You should speak to him about the importance of honesty. Copying someone's homework is never OK. Don't worry, you did the right thing .

A The Roma People

Many Colombian people do not recognize them as citizens of the country. Roma people are 'invisible' Colombians, a minority group that live in poverty. They need health care, better nutrition and education. There are about 5,000 Roma people in Colombia.

Roma people are nomads – they travel from one place to another. They are good artists. In their culture singing, dancing and playing musical instruments are very important. The women sometimes sell shoes or kitchen utensils. They are also fortune-tellers.

1. Origin and location in Colombia

Roma, or Rom, people arrived in Colombia in the 16th century from European countries such as Spain and Portugal. Rom originally meant 'men of low class who live on singing and dancing'. They live in Bolívar, Antioquia, Tolima and Nariño.

Girls and boys get married when they are teenagers. Roma people don't value individuality because they belong to a clan. They only learn to read and write. They are bilingual: they speak their native language, Romany, and Spanish.

B The Palenqueros

The women go to Cartagena every day to sell fruit and sweets. They wear colourful clothes that represent the colours of the rainbow, and to show they are happy. Women carry water from casimbas (holes near the river where they store the water). The men often work on farms.

The Palenqueros suffer from racial discrimination. Many don't know how to read or write. They need more support from the government because they don't have electricity or running water. They live in extreme poverty.

They speak Palenquero, a language that combines Spanish and African languages. They have a ritual for the dead called Lumbalú. They don't cry. They sing, play the marimba and the drums, and dance around the dead person to say goodbye.

The Palenqueros are descended from African slaves. Today, the Palenqueros form a group of 3,500 inhabitants of Palenque de San Basilio, which is located in Montes de María, three hours away from Cartagena. In 2005, UNESCO declared San Basilio a 'masterpiece of the oral and intangible heritage of humanity'.
