

D Now complete the Exam Task. Remember to check your answers carefully when you have finished.

Exam Task

Look at the sentences below about surveillance. Read the text to decide if each sentence is correct or incorrect. Write T (True) or F (False).

- | | |
|---|--------------------------|
| 1. The author refers to the book 1984 to recommend we read it. | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 2. In 1984, the government knows everything that everyone does. | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 3. Each surveillance camera in Britain can watch 14 people. | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 4. Britain has fewer surveillance cameras than France | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 5. There are surveillance cameras at sports events in Britain | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 6. Criminals say nothing when they are caught by the police. | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 7. British police have used surveillance cameras to find killers. | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 8. A sign on a house about video cameras might not be true. | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 9. The Poseidon system had been working in the pool for less than a year. | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 10. Norman Siegel is concerned because nobody wants to vote. | <input type="checkbox"/> |

E Find the meaning of the red words below in the text. Then circle the correct words in the sentences.

- 1 When there are many police officers on the streets, it can prevent/commit crime.

2 Can you predict / remind what will happen in five years? 3 The police must catch/control the fans

at a football game.

some cities.