John: Laura and I have decided that we ¹ _____ (get) married in a hotel.

Donna: Really? Anywhere I know?

John: Yes, it's The Elms at Coverley. We ² _____ (meet) the manager there on Saturday to talk about our plans. We still haven't fixed a date yet! The only problem is that our car has broken down.

Donna: Oh dear. Well, ³ _____ (drive) you?

John: That's really kind of you, Donna.

Donna: No problem. I ⁴ _____ (call) Rachel in a minute and tell her that I can't meet her for lunch on Saturday.

John: Thanks, Donna. Right, well, we ⁵ _____ (pay) for the petrol. It's quite a long way.

Donna: You ⁶ _____ (not stay) there overnight though, are you?

John: No, don't worry. We ⁷ _____ (not be) there for more than a couple of hours.

Donna: OK. It's just that my uncle and aunt ⁸ _____ (visit) us on Sunday morning, so I have to be back for that.

John: Sure.

Donna: So are you going to decide on a date when you speak to the hotel manager?

John: Yes, that's right.

Donna: Well, don't choose 17 September. That's the day Gina and Sam ⁹ _____ (get) married.

John: No, of course. Don't worry. I ¹⁰ _____ (speak) to Laura this evening and see if we can agree on a date.

Donna: Great! See you on Saturday, then.

4 Complete the sentences with the correct adjectives.

- 1 Their house is very tiny / spacious / bright. There are six bedrooms and seven bathrooms!
- 2 Alexa is an artist so she needs a flat with big windows so it is always dark / bright / light.
- 3 I love sitting in front of an open fire when it's cold outside – it feels so cosy / huge / cold.
- 4 My first home was very bright / basic / poor. There was a bath, but no shower and no central heating.
- 5 We could only buy a really tiny / medium / huge flat. There are two rooms – a bathroom and a living room with a bed and cooker in it!

6 Choose the correct options to complete the text. There may be more than one possible answer.

Houses have changed in ¹ many / a lot of / much ways over the past 50 years. People used to socialize in the living room, eat in the dining room and cook in the kitchen. Now, people have ² few / little / a little interest in a separate room for eating. They want ³ plenty of / many / too much space to socialize, so they often combine the kitchen and living room. There also need to be ⁴ too many / too / enough bathrooms for everyone – rather than just one, as in the past. One house builder said, 'You can't have ⁵ too many / enough / any bathrooms. We're all far ⁶ too much / too many / too busy to wait for other people to have a shower!' But what about outside? Has there been ⁷ much / many / a lot of change here? Again, some people say they've got ⁸ none / not any / no time to look after a garden, so they prefer to have a patio with perhaps ⁹ a few / few / a little plants in pots. Or they use their front gardens for their cars. In some cities, there ¹⁰ aren't any / are no / are none front gardens left any more.

7 Complete the sentences with the correct form of the words in brackets.
