

Complete the sentences with the verbs in bracket using present continuous.

PRESENT CONTINUOUS
AFFIRMATIVE	NEGATIVE	INTERROGATIVE
You are playing football now.	You are not playing ...	Are you playing ...?
He is visiting his grandmother today.	He is not visiting ...	Is he visiting ...?
Right now, they are running very fast.	They are not running ...	Are they running ...?

Note:

- We use present simple and verb TO BE in present simple (am, is, are).
- Use it to talk about things that are happening now and fixed future plans.

- I _____ (watch) a reality show on TV.
- My favorite team _____ (win)!
- Someone _____ (swim) in the sea.
- Two people _____ (cook) dinner on the beach.
- We _____ (not watch) a soap opera.
- I _____ (not do) my homework.
- Mum _____ (read) a magazine.
- My brother _____ (not listen) to the radio.
- Dad _____ (not cook) dinner.
- Tara _____ (talk) by phone.
- Joe _____ (play) on the computer.
- Who _____ (watch) TV?
- Tina _____ (do) grammar exercises.
- I _____ (eat) a pizza.
- We _____ (sit) in the classroom.
- I _____ (not write) an email.
- Amy _____ (not go) to school today.
- We _____ (not have) fun today.
- My team _____ (not win) the match.
- My parents _____ (drive) to work now.
- _____ they _____ (read) magazines? Yes, they are.
- _____ you _____ (learn) English? Yes, I am.
- _____ Helen _____ (write) a letter? No, she isn't.
- _____ Sarah _____ (play) the guitar? Yes, she is.
- We _____ (not play) basketball.