

Diamante poems

Diamante is an Italian word for diamond. Thus, a 'diamante' poem is a poem written in a diamond shape, about two opposites. It uses specific parts of speech.

Examples

strong furious, powerful booming, raging, striking hurricane, flood, thunderstorm, rain drizzling, dripping, sprinkling gloomy, misty weak

Diamante poems

Rules:

Line 1: Noun

Line 2: Two adjectives that describe the noun in line 1

Line 3: Three descriptive verbs ending in 'ing' to describe the noun in line 1

Line 4: Four nouns (the first two must be related to the noun in line 1, and the second two must be related to the noun in line 7)

Line 5: Three descriptive verbs ending in 'ing' to describe the noun in line 7.

Line 6: Two adjectives that describe the noun in line 7

Line 7: Noun that is opposite in meaning to line one (antonym diamante) or the same in meaning (synonym diamante) as the noun in line one
