

- A. A little monkey wanted to be big and strong.
- B. He threw his magic wand into the river.
- C. He saw a giraffe and said, "I want that Giraffe's neck."
- D. "I look awful!" he cried.
- E. The elephant poured water all over himself.
- F. "I want to be myself again" he cried and cried.
- G. Monkey was very happy now.
- H. I never want to be "anyone else again!" the monkey said.
- I. Soon he got stripes all over the body.
- J. I want to try out this new trunk, he said and went to a river.
- K. "Not a monster! It's only you!" Mother monkey told.
- L. A wise woman gave a magic wand to him.
- M. "Oh! I want a trunk like that elephant !" he said.
- N. He then saw a beautiful striped zebra passing by.
- O. "POP!" he got a long neck.
- P. "Take this! And all your wishes will come true," she said.
- Q. An elephant was getting into the water in a river.
- R. "Oh! A Monster! "he cried, seeing his reflection in the river.
- S. With a BANG, he got a long , big trunk.
- T. "I want stripes in my body!" he said.
- U. With a POP, BANG AND WHIZ, he became a monkey again.