

IDENTIFYING ATTITUDE AND OPINION

1  9.2 Listen to Tom and Natalie talking about shopping. Are these sentences true (T) or false (F)?

- 1 Tom likes to shop online. _____
- 2 Natalie prefers online shopping. _____
- 3 Tom thinks online shopping is easy. _____
- 4 Natalie doesn't like department stores. _____

2 Are the underlined phrases from the conversation opinion (A), feeling (B), or attitude (C)?

- 1 Yeah, I do most of my shopping online.
I much prefer it. _____
- 2 Sure, you see it's so convenient to shop online. _____
- 3 I mean, to be honest, shopping for clothes online is the opposite of convenient. _____
- 4 I wouldn't say that's a big problem. _____
- 5 I get really fed up waiting! _____
- 6 I guess I just like stores, especially department stores. _____
- 7 I enjoy wandering from the clothes section to kitchen appliances. _____
- 8 I just remember the crowds and the lines: it was really boring! _____

SHOPPING VOCABULARY

Complete the sentences with shopping words.

- 1 That jacket was only thirty dollars? Wow! That's an absolute b_____!
- 2 I bought this bag on s_____ for half the usual price!
- 3 Students get a 20% d_____ in all our stores.
- 4 The pants didn't fit, so I sent them back and got a r_____.
- 5 I asked the salesperson if I could e_____ the jacket for a larger size.
- 6 Are you paying with cash or by c_____ card?
- 7 I need to try this suit on. Where's the nearest d_____ room?
- 8 Sometimes I used to go w_____ shopping with no money in my pocket. I just looked at all the beautiful things.
- 9 There was such a long l_____ to pay that I decided not to wait.
- 10 I paid for the items and the cashier gave me a r_____.