

Writing

A review

THE SHERLOCK HOLMES MUSEUM

1 Last weekend my family and I visited the Sherlock Holmes Museum in London. It's small but interesting. It's got a shop for visitors too.

2 The museum is like the home of Sherlock Holmes, the main character from the famous detective stories. You could look around the different rooms. You could see lots of his possessions too. You could also meet characters from the books – but they were really actors!

3 My favourite thing was the museum shop, which was very good value. There were also some good books to buy. The only problem was that the museum was very busy. We waited half an hour to buy tickets!

28/61

1 1.30 Read and listen to the review. In which paragraph does Penelope ...

- give details about what you can do at the museum?
- say what she liked and didn't like about the museum?
- give some general information about the museum?

Answers:

a) _____

b) _____

c) _____

3 Read the review again. Find more examples of sentences with also and too.

4 Rewrite the second sentences using the words in brackets.

- You could have a drink. You could have a meal. (also)
- Young children will enjoy it. Teenagers will enjoy it. (too)
- The tickets were expensive. The café was expensive. (also)
- We enjoyed exploring the castle. We enjoyed exploring the gardens. (too)

Answers:

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

4. _____