HOME

Way down upon the

Far, far away,

Where my cries,

There the stay.

Up and down the whole day,

I roam,

Far from home.

All around the little farm I

When I was young,

The many days I wasted,

Many songs I sang,

When I with my brother,

Happy was I,

Take me to my old life.

No where I go,

I will miss my home,

Far, far away from I roam.
