

3. Choose the right alternative:

Dear Carlo,

I am writing – wrote to tell you about my holidays in the USA. Yesterday, in New York I go – went to my cousins' school. There was – were lots of children in the playground. At break time the boys plays – played their favourite sport: baseball. Chuck and his friends were – was very angry because they lost.

You and I like – likes football. I told them how to play football but they didn't liked – like it. I wanted to go to their school again, but Mum said that I can't – couldn't go because I had to visit the Statue of Liberty with her. Anyway, we didn't went – went this afternoon and it was – were great!

Love,

Marcelo

4.- Unjumble the sentences:

a. bigger / New York / Rome. / is / than´

b. didn't / New York. / American football / Marcelo /play / in

c. the USA. /sister/ a lot of / and /in / bought / Marcelo /his /things.

d. had / Marcelo's dad /watch TV /headache. / didn't /because / a /he

e. him/ present / when / gave /Marcelo's aunt/home. / a / they/ went back

5.- Match:

1) Why did you buy that bike? Yesterday.
2) When did you see him? my dad gave me a present. Look!
3) I'm very good at Maths, but No, we went to the club.
4) I was happy this morning because Because it was cheaper.
5) Did you go to the cinema yesterday? my sister is better.