

Classwork

How animals stay safe?

Look and label the animals. Then number each description to match.

pill bug horned lizard coral snake lionfish crab spider arctic fox camouflage

camouflage

poison

poison

hard body parts

hard body parts

☐ Lionfish have poisoned spikes.

☐ A crab spider is hard to see. Its color protects it.

☐ Coral snakes bite
with poisonous fangs.

☐ Spikes and horns protect the horned lizard.

☐ Pill bugs roll into a ball. They hide in their hard shells.

☐ The arctic fox's
fur changes color
each season.