

Put the verbs into the correct tense form. Mind the sense!

1. Last week Polina _____ (to have) holidays. She _____ (to enjoy) them very much.
2. Next Monday Marina _____ (to visit) her granny. She _____ (to be) happy.
3. Look, Paul _____ (to help) his granny in the garden. Then she _____ (to cook) dinner and they _____ (to have) dinner together. Paul usually _____ (to eat) a lot because his granny's food _____ (always/to be) very tasty.
4. Last Tuesday the class _____ (to go) to the museum. They _____ (to see) a skeleton of a dinosaur there. The dinosaurs _____ (to live) many years ago. They _____ (to run) fast because they _____ (to be) very big and heavy.
5. Today is Friday. Yesterday Mike _____ (to invite) Alice to the cinema on weekend. Alice _____ (to be) a very nice girl and Mike _____ (to want) her to be his girlfriend. He _____ (to think) of her all the time. On Saturday, when they _____ (to go) to the cinema, he _____ (to tell) her what he _____ (to feel).
6. Last Wednesday Paul _____ (to go) to the cinema. He _____ (to take) his friend Liz with him. They _____ (to watch) a cartoon and _____ (to eat) a lot of popcorn.
7. Next Saturday Paul _____ (to invite) Liz to the disco. They _____ (to dance) but they _____ (to eat) popcorn, because there is no popcorn at the disco.
8. On Sundays the girls _____ (to go/often) to the park. They _____ (sit/usually) under a big oak and _____ (to talk).
9. Liz _____ (to have) a birthday party last week. Tom _____ (to bring) her a very cute kitten as a present. The children _____ (to play) interesting games and _____ (to have) fun. The party _____ (to be) cool! Liz _____ (to like) the party very much. I think, everybody _____ (to like) parties.

