Simple Past Tense (Questions)

Verb-to-be:	1. Was he unwell this morning? Yes, he was. / No, he wasn't. 2. Were they friends in the past? Yes, they were. / No they weren't.
Action verbs:	3. Did you go to the mall yesterday? Yes, I did. / Yes, I went to the mall yesterday. No, I didn't. / No, I didn't go to the mall yesterday.

I. Complete the sentences below with the past tense of the verbs.

1. Paul: _____ (be) you at the party last night?

   Angela: Yes, I _____.

   Paul: _____ your classmates _____ (go) with you?

   Angela: No, they _____. I _____ (go) with my best friend Amy only.

   Paul: I see. _____ Amy _____ (enjoy) herself?

   Angela: I think she _____. She _____ (meet) some of her friends at the party and _____ (dance) with them.

   Paul: That sounds fun. How about you? _____ you _____ (have) fun?

   Angela: Of course I _____. I _____ (eat) lots of yummy food and _____ (play) games with my friends.

   Paul: _____ (be) there any performances?

   Angela: Yes, the host _____ (invite) a magician to perform some magic tricks.

   Paul: Sounds like a party with everything!

LIVEWORKSHEETS

2. Frida: Why _____ (be) you absent from school last Friday? It _____ (be) Sports Day!

Bradley: I _____ (catch) the flu. I _____ (keep) coughing for the entire day.

Frida: Oh, poor thing! _____ your mother _____ (take) you to the clinic?

Bradley: Yes, she _____. She _____ (not go) to work that day and _____ (stay) at home to take care of me.

Frida: What _____ the doctor _____ (say)?

Bradley: He _____ (ask) me to take plenty of rest and drink lots of water. I'm feeling much better now.

Frida: Glad to hear that.

Bradley: By the way, _____ you _____ (win) any medals on the Sports Day?

Frida: No, I _____.

LIVEWORKSHEETS