

MINI CHALLENGE

Fill in the blanks with ONE suitable word:

Yesterday _____ 5 o'clock, Eric started preparing his presentation together with _____ classmate, Rob. They are having a History lesson _____ Wednesday. They found a lot of information on the web:

Scandinavia, _____ the fierce Vikings lived, was a very cold place. They lived in longhouses, which were made of strong wooden posts. A longhouse was usually just one big room _____ everyone ate, slept and relaxed. _____ didn't have much furniture. For lunch, people sat on benches and _____ night, they slept on platforms. Vikings hunted _____ the morning and _____ food was pretty boring because they only ate what they grew and hunted.

The Vikings usually raided towns and villages _____ the afternoon. To raid those towns and villages, the Vikings used their longships, which were the fastest ships of that time.

The Viking age came to an end _____ 1.100, when Scandinavia was divided into the countries of Sweden, Norway and Denmark, each with its own king.

