

This is London, the capital city of England and the United Kingdom. The big wheel you can see is the Millennium Wheel or London Eye as it's also known. It's 135 m high with 32 glass capsules (each with room for 25 people). The wheel was opened in March 2000 to mark the end of the 20th century and the beginning of the new millennium.

Listen

Answer the questions

1. The London Eye is also known as "The Millennium Wheel".
2. The London Eye has _____ glass capsules.
3. The London Eye was opened in _____.
4. _____ passengers are there in each capsules.

Opposite the Millennium Wheel you can find Big Ben, the famous clock tower and the palace of Westminster, also known as the Houses of Parliament. This is where the government meet.

Listen

Answer the questions

1. Big Ben is the name of _____.
2. The Houses of Parliament also called _____.
3. The Westminster Palace is where the _____ meets.

One of the best things about London is its parks. In Regent's Park you have the largest grass area for sports in central London and an Open Air theatre. You can relax, walk and run in the parks but you can't cycle-only the police could do that!

Listen

Answer the questions

1. Regent's Park is in _____ London.
2. In the Regent's Park there is a _____ .
3. You can't _____ in this park but only the police could do it.

Another feather of London is the Changing of the guard which takes place inside the grounds of Buckingham Palace every day at 11 o'clock.

Watch

Answer the questions

1. There are _____ rooms in Buckingham Palace.
2. The Duke of Buckingham built the original house in 1705 and made it a palace in _____ .
3. The changing of the guard ceremony take place every morning at _____am.
during the summer season.

S.Rattana