Mixtures. Matter.

Read and match the descriptions about mixtures to the pictures.

Components are distinguishable in a heterogeneous mixture.

Homogeneous mixtures or solutions do not have visible components.

Alloys are a combination of metals that are melted together.

Sand is an example that we can see with the naked eye.

An example is lemonade that is made of water and lemon juice.

Euro coins are made of two alloys for the inner circle and outer ring.

LIVEWORKSHEETS