

The Life Cycle of Butterflies

- a After three to twelve days, the eggs become caterpillars.
- b Butterflies lay eggs on the leaves of plants.
- c After seven to ten days, butterflies come out of the chrysalis.
- d The caterpillars eat the leaves of the plants and grow.
- e They make a chrysalis around their bodies.