A Missing Pet

A few months ago, my family and I (0) go to my grandparents' house. We decided to bring along (1) your pet cat, Tiger, since there was nobody to take care of it at home. We arrived (2) in my grandparents' house as dusk fell. Everyone was tired after the long drive. My brother and I yawned and stretched when we got out of the car. Thinking that Tiger was tired after the long journey, I took it out from its cage (3) but let it roam freely around the house. Unfortunately, Tiger went (4) miss the next day. I was very sad and worried because we had to leave for home in the evening without Tiger. My father felt sorry for me, so he decided to (5) staying over for one more night. I could not sleep that night as I tossed and turned in bed. (6) Final, I dozed off. Around 3.00 a.m., I felt a gentle nudge on my cheek. Still feeling drowsy, I opened my eyes. To my surprise, a pair of sad eyes stared at me. It was Tiger! I (7) grab it and realised that Tiger was wet and smelly. I wondered where it had gone to. Maybe it (8) has fallen into a drain or ditch. I was just glad that Tiger was back in my arms. What a huge relief!
