

Listen to the Recording, and read the text. Who is talking? Anna or Scott? Click on the correct one.

|                                                                                                                                            |      |       |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------|-------|
|                                                           |      |       |
| Do you live in a city?                                                                                                              | Anna | Scott |
| No, I don't live in a city. I live in a small town .                                                                                |      |       |
| Yes, I do. I live in a big city .                                                                                                   |      |       |
| Is your school big?                                                                                                                 | Anna | Scott |
| No, it isn't. It's a small school , but I have a lot of friends.                                                                    |      |       |
| Yes, it's a very big school                                                                                                                |      |       |
| What stores are there in your neighborhood?                                                                                         | Anna | Scott |
| There's a mall and a lot of grocery stores. There's a library too.                                                                  |      |       |
| There isn't a mall, but there's a grocery store and a market . There's also a candy store across the street from our school. |      |       |
| Is there a playground close to you?                                                                                                 | Anna | Scott |
| No, there isn't a playground . There are fields behind our school.                                                           |      |       |
| Yes, there are a lot of playgrounds.                                                                                                       |      |       |
| What do you like about where you live?                                                                                              | Anna | Scott |
| I like the movie theaters and the library.                                                                                          |      |       |
| I like that I know everyone in town.                                                                                                       |      |       |
| What don't you like?                                                                                                                | Anna | Scott |
| I don't like the traffic ! There's a street in front of our school with a lot of traffic. It's very noisy!                          |      |       |
| We don't have a movie theater. I don't like that!                                                                                          |      |       |
| Do you have a picture of where you live?                                                                                            | Anna | Scott |
| Yes. These are my friends. We're playing in the field!                                                                                     |      |       |
| Yes. These are my friends. We're playing on the school playground!                                                                         |      |       |
| Are you taking the picture?                                                                                                         | Anna | Scott |
| Yes I am!                                                                                                                                  |      |       |
| Yes I am!                                                                                                                                  |      |       |