HOW STRICT IS YOUR SCHOOL?

Forum

Jared April,26 06:23

I go to a "No Excuses" high school in New Orleans. It's terrible! When you arrive, the teachers give you a 51-page handbook of rules. It's impossible to know them all, and some are stupid. For example, in class,we must sit up straight and look at the teacher all the time. We aren't allowed to put our heads on the desk, or close our eyes. If we make mistakes, they punish us. We aren't allowed to talk at lunch, and they're incredibly strict about uniform. They sent me home for wearing the wrong style of sneakers! And if you bring a cell phone, you get detention.

Julia April,26 07:05

Wow! Our dress code just says that we should wear sensible clothes. Girls aren't allowed to wear make-up, short skirts or colorful jewelry, and boys must wear shirts, but they're allowed to have long hair. We can use our cell phones at recess. And as we get older, the rules get more relaxed.

Ben April,26 07:10

We don't even have a dress code at my school, and they encourage us to use cell phones in some classes. Why did your parents send you to this place? It sounds like a prison!

Jared April,26 07:30

Some parents help make the rules. They think strict discipline will help us get better results. But it doesn't work like that. Some kids can't stand it and behave badly. Then they have to leave the school. It's sad because these kids don't get a good education, and some get into trouble with the law.

Ben April,26 07:31

My school gets excellent results because teachers respect students. How do you survive?

Jared April, 26 07:33

Once I made a complaint about a punishment, and I got detention. Now, I follow the rules and say nothing. I only have one more year to go.
