

Cause and Effect

A Snack for a Spider

Spiders make webs.

They use the webs to catch bugs.

A spider's web is like a sticky net.

When a bug flies into the web,
it gets stuck.

Then the spider eats the bug.

Read the first part of each sentence.

Select the words that tell what happens next.

1. The spider makes a web, so _____
 - A. it flies away.
 - B. it catches bugs.
 - C. it falls asleep.
2. Because the web is sticky, _____
 - A. it glows.
 - B. bugs see it.
 - C. bugs get stuck.
3. A spider catches a bug, and then it _____
 - A. eats it.
 - B. hugs it.
 - C. sings to it.
4. When a bug flies into the web, _____
 - A. it runs away.
 - B. it smells pretty
 - C. it gets stuck.
5. Why do spiders catch bugs?
 - A. Spiders play with bugs.
 - B. Spiders eat bugs.
 - C. Spiders spin bugs.