A SHORT STORY TO PUT A SMILE ON YOUR FACE
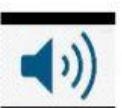

Once upon a time, there was a person coming to a new village relocating.And he was wondering if he would like it there.
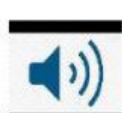

So he went to a zen master and asked. do you think i will like it in this Village. Are the people nice? The master asked back. how were the people in the town where you came from?

They were nasty and greedy, they were angry and lived for cheating and stealing. Said the newcomer. those are exactly the type of people we have in this village. Said the master.

A day later,another newcomer to the Village visited the master and asked the samequestion.to which the master asked. how were the people in the town where you come from?

They were sweet and lived in harmony. they cared for one another and for the land,they respected each other, and they were seekers of spirit. He replied. Well, those are exactly the type of people we have in this village. said the master.

So be good to the world, and the world will be good to you. Give love to the World, and the world will give love to you.
