

WATCHING

MOVIE: SECOND ACT

SCENE: Zoe asks Maya to be a Mandarin translator

Focus: Grammar (Subject Pronouns and Possessive Adjectives) and general vocabulary.

Watch the scene and complete the activities.

LISTENING

1) Complete the conversation using the words from the boxes below:

we

you

his

our

their

Zoe: So, we are looking at taking on a new Chinese distributor.

_____ CEO is in town and wants to meet me and Ron for dinner this Thursday. _____ English is sketchy at best.

Dad thought... _____ could help us out.

Maya: Okay.

Zoe: _____ go-to translator is on his honeymoon, and the only employee _____ have who speaks Mandarin is...

Maya: Me?

Zoe: Yeah.

Maya: Okay.

Zoe: Great.

Maya: Great.

Zoe: Thursday.

Maya: Yep.

Zoe: Okay.

GRAMMAR

2) Match the columns to complete the statements about the words in Exercise 1:

a) The words in the yellow box are possessive adjectives

b) The words in the blue box are subject pronouns

VOCABULARY

3) Read the conversation again and notice the purple words. Match these words and their meanings:

Chinese

imperfect

dinner

Chinese language

sketchy

vacation taken by a newly married couple

translator

relating to China

honeymoon

a person who works for a company

employee

a person who translates

Mandarin

meal eaten in the evening

4) Complete the conversations using the words from Exercise 3 (Chinese, dinner, employee, honeymoon, Mandarin, sketchy, translator).

a) I'm from China.

I'm _____ and I speak _____.

b) This is Edward, our new _____.

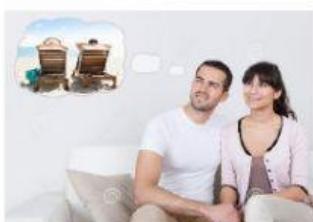

c) My skills in Russian language are _____.

d) Jim knows 6 languages, he should be a _____.

e) I usually have three meals a day: breakfast, lunch and _____.

f) We want a _____ in Thailand.