

Let's remember!

A phrasal verb is a verb that is made up of a main verb together with an adverb or a preposition, or both.

Use Phrasal Verbs
to be a Fluent
English Speaker

Please fill in the blanks with the correct word listed below.

Burn out	Call off	Knock off	Knuckle down	Take over	Wrap up
Work out	Fill in for	Deal with	Hold on	Fall through	Come up with	Write up

- 1– I think you should stop working, otherwise you will your-self
- 2– My colleague, Sandra, got sick last week and I
.....
her for 3 days.
- 3– How do you stress with all those meetings?
- 4– Let's the meeting and continue our conversation at a restaurant.
- 5– If you want to be successful, you should
- 6– We had tothe meeting because our client had a flight at that time.
- 7– Let's and go for lunch, we are tired.
- 8– I asked my assistant to a report on the topics we discussed at the meeting yesterday.
- 9– Please a second, I have to speak with my boss first.
- 10– Are you ready to the business after your father's retirement?
- 11– One of attendees at the meeting a brilliant idea and we loved it!
- 12– All our efforts in this project quite well and we signed an agreement with the customer.