

Identify the complete subjects, complete verbs, and complete objects in the following sentences.

Subject    Predicate

1. My family would like to thank you for coming to our dinner.

Subject    Predicate

2. The school teacher started the school year by going over the classroom rules.

Subject    Predicate

3. The students learned that coming to school on time was important.

Subject    Predicate

4. Susie wrote with her pencil during the Math class.

Subject    Predicate

5. The man dreamt of flying in his sleep.

Complete Subject, Complete Verb, Complete Object

6. The brown bear killed the red wolf.

Complete Subject, Complete Verb, Complete Object

7. The basketball team played outdoors for practice.

Complete Subject, Complete Verb, Complete Object

8. The comedian made everyone laugh at his show.

Complete Subject, Complete Verb, Complete Object

9. The teacher gave the class an opportunity to learn.

Complete Subject, Complete Verb, Complete Object

10. The students had a spelling test on Friday.